

New Sponsorship Arrangement with Musée d'Art Moderne Grand-Duc Jean, Mudam Luxembourg

Oostvogels Pfister Feyten was pleased to have sponsored the original 'Call + Response' symposium which took place at the The Musée d'Art Moderne Grand-Duc Jean, Mudam Luxembourg from 25 April to 28 April 2008.

The 'Call + Response' symposium involved a series of events hosted by artist, Candice Breitz which, during a three-day line-up of performances, brings together artists and thinkers to discuss questions concerning artistic appropriation and recycling. Conferences, performances, meetings, exchanges and presentations are all part of the seminar programme. Around twenty artists and theoreticians invited by Breitz, considered the notion of «call and response», a term Breitz borrows from musicology to describe the technique with which new works are created, in other words, the interaction of multiple sources and musical references.

Harold Parize, partner at Oostvogels Pfister Feyten said:

"We are delighted to have this unique opportunity to be working alongside Mudam. Our law firm places great emphasis on dynamic and creative thinking hence forming this relationship. Through sponsorships with Mudam and local sports clubs such as Sparta, Luxembourg, we aim also to play a part in supporting the local communities and to help promote the many facets Luxembourg has to offer".
